My dear Children!

I place these few lines in the package containing my last Will and address them to you, instead of your dear Mother, for the reason, that she & I have several times talked the matter over and she fully understands my Wishes herein expressed

You have all been good Children, and a great Comfort to me. My happiest Thoughts are connected with you in the hope and belief that after I shall be called away, You will, all of you strive to be kind and good to your Mother, and to each other. I have the earnest and cherished desire, that you will, after I am gone, strive to preserve Harmony, and good will, and unselfish relations among yourselves.
Try to keep the estate I leave you together, so far as you can, and make it productive if not only of increase and Substance, but let it be a cause for mutual confidence and affection. Each of you should yield to the other more or less, if necessary to preserve harmony and union.

Sickness, Misfortune, perhaps something worse can come to some one of you, but my dear children, face it bravely, and with hearts full of love for each other, and do just what you think, I would like to have you do, if I was present to advise and counsel you.

Be generous and unselfish to each other in case of need and above all, be honest and noble, in all your dealings, not only with each other, but with the World.

I want you to always have a good Name.

It is better than riches, and your greatest happiness will come from your knowledge of doing right.

You must first of all be good to your Mother. Do all you can to make her last days her best days, and when she is gone, and you, and you are left without either father or Mother, try always to remember my last wishes that you my dear children shall live in harmony & mutual

Confidence, each doing all in his or her power to keep the estate productive of the best results, for the interest not of any one child, but for all surviving children.

I can not say more in this letter, it is merely a last word to you all, begging you to remember your Father's last wish, that you each, and all, do all you can, to promote each others happiness & welfare through life, no matter what changes may come, or how one may be favored, or another be frowned upon by the fortunes of the world. Good bye my dear children your loving Father.
